

BOOSTING SUSTAINABLE IMPACT

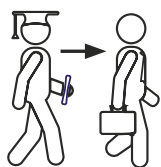

Through Higher Education partnerships in Malaysia

CMI's dual accreditation of MQA-approved academic programmes with UK-regulated professional vocational qualifications offers university students a uniquely enriched educational experience. By leveraging CMI's extensive resources, students from diverse backgrounds gain access to top-tier learning opportunities. This dual accreditation not only elevates the quality of education provided by higher education partners but also aligns academic and professional skills, making students highly attractive to employers. Graduates leave well-prepared for the job market and are on the pathway to becoming Chartered Managers.

According to Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers (FMM) president Soh Thian Lai, "Local university graduates often have strong technical knowledge and theoretical understanding of their subjects but lack practical experience and industry readiness... (including) soft skills, critical thinking and innovativeness."
